

A By-law of the Town of Stettler to regulate and control the use of sump pumps, weeping tile, and roof drains discharging into Sanitary Sewers.

WHEREAS it is deemed expedient and proper to protect the sanitary sewer system together with all related appurtenances including lift stations and lagoon of the Town of Stettler by preventing the introduction of storm water to the said system;

THE MUNICIPAL COUNCIL OF THE TOWN OF STETTLER DULY ASSEMBLED enacts as follows:--

1. That no sump pump shall be installed in any building in the Town of Stettler in such a manner that discharge water from said pump shall enter the sanitary sewer system of the Town either by a direct connection between the said pump and a sanitary sewer service line, or by a direct connection between the said pump and a sanitary sewer main, or by a direct connection between the said pump and a sanitary sewer manhole; and no sump pump shall be installed in any building in the Town of Stettler in such a manner that discharge water from said pump shall indirectly enter the sanitary sewer system of the Town by way of a floor drain, laundry drain or any other connection with the said sanitary sewer system.
2. That no weeping tile installed with the express purpose of draining sub-surface or ground water shall be installed in such a manner that a direct or indirect connection is made with the sanitary sewer system of the Town of Stettler.
3. That no roof drain or any pipe or device designed to carry storm or any water from any roof in the Town of Stettler shall be installed in such a manner to make either a direct or indirect connection with the sanitary sewer system of the Town of Stettler whereby water is discharged into the said sanitary sewer system.
4. That weeping tile may be installed to drain sub-surface or ground water into a sump or into a dry well, and
5. That water shall be pumped from a sump or dry well by means of a sump pump designed to discharge water on the surface of the ground outside the building.
6. That any person who violates any provision of this by-law is guilty of an offence and liable upon summary conviction to a penalty of not more than one hundred dollars ($100.00) and costs, and in default of payment thereof to imprisonment for a period not exceeding thirty (30) days.
7. That this By-law shall take force and effect upon the day of final passing thereof.
