

2nd Annual Community Container Contest – Details and Rules

Teams: Up to 10 teams

Team Composition: Can be as many people as desired; can come from a group, business, organization, individuals, etc.

Entry Fee: $25 per team

Entry Deadline: 4pm on Friday, May 18, 2018

Theme: The Senses (See, Hear, Taste, Touch, Smell)

Designs: Teams must create a container design based on their interpretation of the theme. Should include mainly annual floral or plant-based materials, but may also include some hard features within the planter. Should include consideration of the elements of colour, texture, etc.

Materials: Teams may spend up to $100 total (honour system) on materials (plants and other). It is encouraged for teams to purchase their plant materials at local businesses, as much as possible. Growing medium (soil) and container is provided.

Planting Day: Saturday, June 2, 2018

Labelling: Containers will be discretely labelled as belonging to a particular team

Display: Containers will be displayed along the pathways in West Stettler Park for the duration of the summer. Photos of the containers will be posted on the Town of Stettler website.

Maintenance: Containers are self-watering and will be watered by Town of Stettler Parks staff as required. Slow release fertilizer will be provided at planting.

Judging: Planters will be judged during the Communities in Bloom Judging Day (mid-July) or at a time to be determined based on weather.

Judging Criteria: Judges will evaluate based on the presentation of the team's interpretation of the theme; colour, texture, originality, plant variety, etc.

Prize: Best design will receive $250 Stettler Bucks
