Lost & Found Animals

With the warming temperatures, animals may be more inclined to roam free. Should a Dog or Cat be found running loose in Stettler and is safely confined, please contact the Stettler Town Office or Alberta Animal & Municipal Enforcement Services. A Municipal Enforcement Officer will be able to attend your residence to pick up the animal to either return it to its owners or find a new home for the animal at the Alberta Animal Services Adoption Centre located in the Red Deer Petland. All dog and cat owners are encouraged to ensure their animals have Town licenses obtained and the license tag is affixed to the animal's collar. Animal Licenses are the most effective method to ensure lost & found animals are returned to their owners. Licenses may be obtained at the Stettler Town Office located at 5031-50 Street. The profiles of all impounded animals can be found online at
