

Minutes of the Wellness Network Meeting of Mar. 17th

Those in attendance: Stacie Pederson, Lee Penner, Graham Scott, Mark Fox, Natasja Willms, Aschyr Willms, Jaxsyn Willms

Agenda:

Updates:

- Good Food Box
- Walk & Roll
- Block Party
- Triathlon

New Business:

- Open Gym
- Labyrinth
- Play Central mini-summit

Budget

Update on Good Food Box: Payment can be accepted at the SRC as well now.

Update on Walk & Roll: Additional locations & signage is being looked at.

Update on Block Party Program: 1 application received, signage and live music options are being looked at.

from the Early Childhood Development Committee: the BBQ on a trailer idea has been shelved, “large activity pieces” are being looked at for these events (ie. “Omni-ball” or other large toys)

Update on Triathlon: to take place on July 19th, website is www.stettlertri.com (also albertatriathlon.com)

“Open Gym” time: to open up a time for families to utilize gymnasium space, Lee will contact schools to see if it can be booked through the Clearview office.

Labyrinth: the labyrinth at West Stettler Park is to be updated

Play Central mini-summit: to increase awareness & support for physical literacy. The Wellness Network could host (need facility). Perhaps in late May or early June. Canadian Sport for Life could do mini-workshops. Many groups to invite including: 2 early childhood committees, Wellness Network, coaches, SRC, senior’s groups, FCSS, school staff, the HYC, play schools, recreational therapists, school council, church groups, physiotherapists, local gym staff, dance groups, minor sports, etc.

Budget: $8938, with ~$1500 earmarked for the Triathlon (~50 registrations needed to break even).

Next meeting is Thursday, June 18th from 10am-11 at the SRC