♣ Animal Trapping & Found Animals - Alberta Animal Services ♣

Found a stray Dog or Cat in the Town of Stettler? Should any Stettler resident find any stray Dog or Cat running loose in Stettler and can safely confine the animal to their property please contact the Stettler Town Office or Alberta Animal & Municipal Enforcement Services. A Bylaw Officer will be able to attend your residence to pick up the animal and hopefully return it to its owners or take to the animal to the Alberta Animal Services Care and Control office located in Red Deer. Should a resident observe any animal running loose in Stettler and the animal is not approaching any person or is displaying aggressive behavior, do not approach the animal and contact the Stettler Town Office or Alberta Animal & Municipal Enforcement Services immediately.

The animal trapping program for Cats and Skunks for the Town of Stettler will resume during the spring and/or summer months when the outside temperature does not fall below 0 degrees Celsius.

Should you find a stray animal or have any questions regarding stray animals or the animal trapping program please contact the Stettler Town Office at 403-742-8305 or Alberta Animal Services at 1-866-340-2388. Your Stettler Bylaw Officer, Officer K. Duval will be able to speak with you directly.
